

Joanna Briggs Institute Comprehensive Systematic Review Training (CSR) Program

The UCSF JBI Centre is committed to advancing patient care by teaching JBI comprehensive systematic review (CSR) methods. The CSR workshop will enable learners to transform a particular clinical problem/interest into a systematic review that will be published by JBI and used to support global efforts to improve healthcare, patient, and family outcomes.

Weeklong workshops cover the following materials:

Module 1: Introduction to Evidence-based Health Care and the Systematic Review of Evidence. This module is a prerequisite to all other modules.

Module 2: Systematic Review of Quantitative Data from Experimental, Non-experimental, Diagnostic, and Prognostic Studies

Module 3: The Appraisal, Extraction and Pooling of Qualitative Data
